PLAINTIFFS' SUPPLEMENT TO MOTION FOR CLASS CERTIFICATION

Plaintiffs withdraw their request that Plaintiffs Brian Baldwin and Andres Borrero be appointed class representatives and that the Court certify the South Carolina and Florida subclasses that they seek to represent. Plaintiff Brian Baldwin seeks to withdraw from the case because of the circumstances he is facing in his personal life and because, after beginning the process of preparing for his deposition, he concluded that this case is far more involved and would entail much more work than he anticipated. Plaintiff Andres Borrero is suffering from traumatically induced brain damage, causing him short-term and long-term memory loss, and therefore cannot satisfy the adequacy requirement of Rule 23. Plaintiffs will be filing a motion to dismiss both Messrs. Baldwin and Borrero without prejudice so they can remain in the putative class.
